

Panchase Trek

Trip Overview

The Panchase Trek or Panchase Peak Trek is one of the finest and unique short trekking routes in the region of Pokhara, Nepal. It lies in the Annapurna region of the country Nepal. As well as, it is one of the cheapest treks in Nepal which is great for people on a budget. The name indicates the five seats of the mother in which a person experiences the five-level of survival which includes thinking, feeling, sensing, and manifesting from above and below.

Your trek begins in a unique style with a gentle boat trip across Lake Phewa to take you to the start point with a remarkable closer view of Himalayas, invincible Landscapes, total wildness experience, populated by different ethnical groups, undamaged biodiversity and natural heritage site with the peaceful environment. Nowadays, it is one of the best photographic destinations in Nepal. This Panchase Trek is a teahouse trek with at least three villages you can stay at on the way.

The summit of Panchase Hill (2,500 m) is often considered to be the most excellent viewpoint. From Panchase, you can see the giant Himalayan peaks of Machhapuchhare, Dhaulagiri, Annapurna, Lamjung, Gangapurna, and Manaslu. The forests in the Panchase area are very varied, and much of it is classified as protected forest consisting of a large number of orchid species at over 100 and rhododendron forest. During your journey, you can see many ethnic mixes, such as Brahmin, Magar, and Gurung as well as other groups including their lifestyles. Panchase is one of the hill stations in the Annapurna Region and also a religious site for Hindu People as well for other trekkers. You can see an eye-catching sunrise over the snowy Himalayan peaks this made you lighten up. This trek is appropriate for all ages and fitness levels. The main drawcard of the Panchase trek is the beauty and diversity of the scenery: one minute there are terraced rice fields lush, the next lush vegetation, and then alpine areas!

Highland Eco Trek will help you with this diversified trek to a divine hill, Panchase. You can take pleasure in the environment, its beauty, people living there along with their own cultures and ethnicity.
