

Swargadwari Mai Temple

Trip Overview

The Swargadwari Temple Tour is short in the western region of Nepal. The temple is located in the Pyuthan district and is a holy place for devotees. In large numbers, devotees from Nepal and India make a trip to the Sworgadwari temple every year. The temple's establishment was founded by Swami Hamsanananda, who used to raise cows. The place has a special meaning to it and is considered a sacred place. Swargadwari is reckoned among Nepal's top pilgrimage sites. Many believers believed that it was a door to heaven. Besides the tour of the temple, the place is also suitable for short trekking. The lush forests, views of snow-capped mountains, terraced fields, as well as farmlands, and countryside lifestyle complete the tour with an exploration of the lovely western part of Nepal.

The tour of the Swargadwari temple started with a short trip around the UNESCO-listed world heritage sites of Nepal. Then you will take a picturesque drive to Pyuthan. The drive is long and, at the same time, memorable. The next day you will make your journey to Gorahi, and next day visit the temple and take part in one of the pujas among the several. Visit the sites of the ashram and get to meet the disciples. The journey is short yet full of nature and culture. Join Highland Eco Trek in this holy tour of the Swargadwari Temple and make a memory to last for the last time.
