

Nagarkot Sunrise Tour

Trip Overview

The Nagarkot Sunrise and Hike Tour is a special package for those who are interested in natural beauty and getting healed by nature. Nagarkot is an hour's drive from Kathmandu but a very beautiful place, offering a picturesque view of the Himalayan range of Nepal. Among many admired hills, Nagarkot is one of them, and it is near Kathmandu as well. Nagarkot is mostly famous for its spectacular view of the sunrise over the Himalayas.

The Nagarkot Sunrise and Hike Day Tour starts from your hotel. You will be picked up early from the hotel so that sunrise will not be missed. On the way, you will see beautifully terraced farmlands until you reach your ultimate destination. Upon reaching the viewpoint, you will be greeted by the new rays of the sun for the day. Along with that, you will get to see panoramic views of Dhaulagiri in the west and Mt. Everest in the east. Then prepare yourself for a little exercise, as you will take a short hike through the villages and terraced farmlands. After that, following the local trail, we will hike down to the UNESCO-listed religiously important temple of Changu Narayan, which most visitors miss during the tour.

Take a peek at how life is different in the small communities of Tamang and Newar and get a chance to come across the locals and their lifestyles. Also, meet the people who are keeping the stone and wood carving tradition alive. You may want to spend a little time getting insights into the place, which is a few hours away from bustling Kathmandu.

If you are looking for a place to spend your last day in Nepal, then opt for Nagarkot and enjoy the gift of nature and a peaceful environment. Join the Highland Eco Trek, and the trip to Nagarkot will be even more memorable.
