

Bhaktapur Patan Day Tour

Trip Overview

The Bhaktapur Patan Day tour commences from your hotel when our experienced guide comes to fetch you. The Bhaktapur Patan Day tour is one of the best short trips in Nepal if you have a limited amount of time but want to make it productive. This day tour is an easy and fun trip. The day tour represents Nepalese culture and tradition, particularly Newari culture.

The tour will take you to Bhaktapur Durbar Square and Patan Durbar Square. Both places are UNESCO-listed world heritage sites. Bhaktapur Durbar Square is a beautiful palace with a big open space and 55 carved windows. And the magnificent Golden Gate is one of the main attractions of the place. The lively Newari community adds more glory to this trip. The place reflects the amazing monuments that were built by the Malla dynasty. The palace has many temples as well as a statue of King Bhupatindra Malla on a big stone pillar and also the architectural centerpieces like the lion gate. The famous Batsala temple is full of obscure carvings. After appreciating the architectural beauty, try pottery training from the locals. It can be quite an experience. The lifestyle of the locals living in Bhaktapur is quite different from the locals living in Patan.

Explore the chowks, alleys, and beautiful Patan Durbar square, finding the architectural style a little different from Bhaktapur. Patna Durbar Square lies in the heart of Lalitpur and is a very charming palace to appreciate the art, history, and culture. The pagoda-style temples, wood carving, and arty courtyards give a delightful feeling. Get a peek at the traditions and culture of the Newar community. Take a glimpse of the artifact museum, Keshav Narayan Chowk, Sundari Chowk, and TushaHiti, showing fine woodcarving and sculptures. The famous Krishna temple represents the faith and beliefs restored in Nepalese. The temple, made entirely of stone, is believed to be the first model of Shikhara-style architecture in Nepal.

The Bhaktapur Patan Day tour is entirely a sightseeing tour with a very informative guide. The tour is cheaper compared to other tours in Nepal. Join the Highland Eco Trek and make the day memorable by touring the best places in Nepal.
