

Chulu west peak climbing in Nepal

Trip Overview

Chulu West Peak climbing (6419 m/21,055 ft) is an awesome way to get the adrenalin rush going through your mind. The summit is not only adventurous but also a memorable one. Chulu West Peak, standing tall at 6419m above sea level, is one of the peaks in the Annapurna range. As for peak climbing, Nepal is quiet and has a lot of options among many of the peaks of Nepal. Chulu West is one of the peaks that offers the best of the Annapurna range of Nepal. Chulu West peak climbing is not only about getting to the top of the peak but also experiencing the culture, tradition, and lifestyle of the people on the trail through trekking.

As trekking in Nepal is popular among trekkers, peak climbing goes hand in hand with this enthusiastic group of climbers. The Chulu West Peak Climbing Journey starts with a beautiful sightseeing tour of UNESCO-listed World Heritage sites in Kathmandu Valley and learns about the famous architectural beauty of the structures and temples of Nepal. The official trek starts from Besisahar, continuing until we reach the base camp and set up camp for acclimatization and rest. The trekking trail for Chulu West Peak passes through Chamche, Pisang, and Yak Kharkha.

The climb to Chulu West Peak is not technically difficult, though ascending may be slow due to slopes that are defenseless to the avalanche. However, our experienced mountain guide is there to lend a helping hand in any situation. Upon reaching the top of the peak, views of the Annapurna range, Mansalu, Gangapurna, Pisang Peak, Chulu East, and other peaks can be seen. The view is magnificent and surreal, as you will feel life flowing onto the clouds of snow. Therefore, opt for Chulu West Peak climbing with Highland Eco Trek and make the journey the most memorable one.
