

Bardia Jungle Safari

Trip Overview

The Bardia jungle safari tour begins at Bardia National Park, which is located in the mid-far western Terai region of Nepal. The nation covers an area of 968 sq km. Bardia National is the largest national park among the other seven national parks. Bardia National Park has the most unspoiled habitat for the flora and fauna. It is also the best place to take pictures of wild animals.

If you are looking for a wide variety of wildlife, then Bardia National Park is one of the best places to be. It has more habitat than all the other national parks of Nepal. Due to the diversity of wildlife, it also has many jungle safari activities. Thus, you can do as many jungle safaris in Bardia, which will take you even closer to nature. The most famous jungle safaris in Bardia are elephant riding, Jeep safari, jungle walks, bird watching, crocodile breeding centres, and many more. All these activities are absolutely fun and exciting, too.

The Bardia Jungle Safari Tour is the ultimate way to experience the natural glory as well as see the habitat of wild animals. Bardia National Park shelters some of the endangered species of Nepal. Himalayan Tahr, which is a rare animal of the genus Hemitragus, is also found in Bardia National Park. Together with that, blue bull, serow, goral, langur monkey, jackal, and rare birds like martens and mongoose are also found.

The Bardai jungle safari tour is not limited to flora and fauna. You may get insight into the Tharu community during village exploration and through their beautiful Tharu dance. Not only is Barida rich in natural vegetation, but it is also rich in cultural aspects.

Overall, the Bardia jungle safari tour is full of adventure. After a hectic trekking or hiking journey, one can always try a Bardia jungle safari tour for relaxation. You can create a memory to remember forever.
