

Bhotekoshi River Rafting

Trip Overview

The Bhotekoshi River is one of the most famous spots for whitewater rafting in Nepal. Not only is it famous for rafting, but it is also famous for canoeing and kayaking. With the safety instructions given by the instructor, you can have an unforgettable ride. Highland Eco Trek organizes Bhotekoshi River rafting. It is a one-day trip just a few hours' drive away from Kathmandu. Due to the steep nature of the river, it has different levels of rapids at different sections of the river. The river is famous for having rapids IV-V. Because of the unpredictable rapids.

The thrill and adrenaline rush you get rafting through the Bhotekoshi River is amazing. Since Bhotekoshi River is Nepal's first bungee jumping site, you can always give it a try for other adventure sports. The place is without a doubt the perfect place for whitewater rafting and other activities, with all of nature's glory surrounding it.

The Bhotekoshi river rafting is closest to grade V level and provides an exhilarating experience to last a lifetime. Bhotekoshi River is also a beautiful place to spend time for relaxation. Besides that, you will be staying by the river in a tent, listening to the sound of flowing water.

Trip Highlights

- A tour of the cultural heritage sites of Kathmandu Valley
- Rafting at the rapids of IV-V levels
- Scenic drive to Bhotekoshi
- Campfire by the river

Trip Itinerary

Day 1: Pick up from airport transfer to Hotel

Cost Includes

Cost Excludes