

Kali Gandaki River Rafting

Trip Overview

Kali Gandaki river rafting is an absolutely fun way to enjoy the gift of nature. For this trip, not only do you have to take long bus tours, but it is all worth it. Kali Gandaki river rafting is not like other rafting spots in Nepal, which can be done in a single day. Kali Gandaki River rafting is a long trip. Even from Pokhara, you will have to do a 6-hour bus drive. Despite it being far from most of the rafting spots in Nepal, it has a different appeal than other places.

The Kali Gandaki River flows from the Tibetan plateau; thus, you will get a chance to experience Himalayan flow. Not only will you be able to go rafting in Kali Gandaki, but there are also several other activities waiting for you. You may swim, go fishing, have waterfalls to play with, and set up campsites. And also get the adrenaline rush of rafting through class III to IV rapids. Experience the thrill of rafting through the Kali Gandaki River and make it unforgettable.

Though the journey to the Kali Gandaki is quite long, but is full of natural beauty and beautiful scenery of mountains, hills, and landscapes. You also pass through the deepest gorge in the world, Kali Gandaki Gorge. Maybe due to its unusual geographical features, it has made it a perfect destination for whitewater rafting. The trail to Kali Gandaki River is new but it is loved by them all. Even though Kali Gandaki River Rafting is a challenging one it is exciting at the same time.
