

Mardi Himal Trek

Trip Overview

Mardi Himal Trek is going to be a more popular short trekking route in the Annapurna region. Mardi Himal is located at the east of the famous trekking destination of Nepal, Annapurna base camp trek. The trail of Mardi Himal is mostly of lush rhododendron forest which opens to the rugged Himalayan trail. Mardi Himal trek is one of the short treks in terms of limited time. Among many trekking destinations in the Annapurna region, the Mardi Himal trek is popular for short treks in Nepal.

The route to Mardi Himal is not jam-packed like any other trekking trail in the Annapurna region. Despite being the newly opened trail, it is gaining more attention among trekkers. Because of the few numbers of the visitor, the number of guest houses or tea houses is also few. Though it is few in number variety in the menus can be found.

The journey commences from Pokhara. After one and a half-hour drive, you will reach Dhampus. Ascending up to the forest camp through the wet and lush forest, you can enjoy the feel of being in the wild. The hike can be tiring but it will be worth the hard work as you will get the awesome view of the Annapurna massif along with some other peaks. From High Camp, you can capture the splendid views of the Machhapure Himal, Annapurna massif, Mardi Himal, and Hinchuli. The trek is not that hard thus kids too old can opt for this trek. Therefore, Mardi Himal Trek can be chosen as a family destination too.
